Did you know?

Of the words to the song, "I Surrender All", Judson W. Van De Venter, says: The song was written while I was conducting a meeting at East Palestine, Ohio, in the home of George Sebring (founder of the Sebring Camp-meeting Bible Conference in Sebring, Ohio, and later developer of the town of Sebring, Florida). For some time, I had struggled between developing my talents in the field of art and going into full-time evangelistic work. At last the pivotal hour of my life came, and I surrendered all. A new day was ushered in to my life. I became an evangelist and discovered down deep in my soul a talent hither to unknown to me. God had hidden a song in my heart, and touching a tender chord, He caused me to sing.

Winfield S. Weeden, composed the music for this song. He published a number of books of religious music, but this song must have been one of his favorites: its title was on his tombstone.
